

Looking for a Graduate Assistantship (GA)?

PROJECT 12-WAYS is looking for you!

WHAT IS PROJECT 12-WAYS?

Project 12-Ways is an in-home parent training service for families who have DCFS involvement due to child abuse and neglect.

THE ASSISTANTSHIP EXPERIENCE: What does it involve?

- Join others who want to make an impact on the problem of child maltreatment.
- Collect, summarize, present, and analyze behavioral data.
- Design and implement treatment plans.
- Develop proficiency in using clinical interventions with families.
- Research opportunities.

PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS

An assistantship at Project 12-Ways provides the following benefits:

- ✓ TUITION WAIVER
- ✓ CLINICAL EXPERIENCE
- ✓ PAY 50% OF SIU HEALTH CARE FEES
- ✓ MONTHLY STIPEND
- ✓ PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
- ✓ TRANSPORTATION TO APPOINTMENTS PROVIDED

REQUIREMENTS

Bachelor's degree required, preferably in Behavior Analysis, Social Work, or Psychology by date of hire. Other degrees will be considered.

WANT TO JOIN OUR TALENTED TEAM?

Contact Project 12-Ways today!!